

Alli Coyne

Alli is an Associate/Resident Director and a Choreographer. She has worked on plays, musicals, concerts and revues, in theatres, arenas, resorts and outdoor venues, in the West End, on tours in the UK and also internationally.

Highlights include European Director on Walking with Dinosaurs – The Arena Spectacular, which involved working in over 36 different languages, Choreographer and Assistant Director on seven CBeebies Live arena tours, with Mr Tumble, Mr Maker, Fireman Sam, Postman Pat etc., Associate Director on Dirty Dancing and Resident Director on Jersey Boys.

She has taught at two full-time colleges and was Principal of her own successful performing arts academy, teaching around 400 pupils a week for around 10 years.

She has lectured and taken workshops as far afield as Australia and Indonesia and is currently waiting to return to the international tour of Bat Out Of Hell.

A fellow and ex-Examiner of the IDTA, Alli is part of the team that organises Miss Dance & Dance Master UK and is very much looking forward to joining you all at the bbodance Dance Teacher's Conference 2021.
