

Sarah Dickinson

BA (Hons), ARAD Adv Teaching Diploma, LISTD, FIDTA

Sarah's professional career has spanned over thirty years and she has taught in some of the leading dance institutions in the country; preparing students globally for a professional career. Head of Classical Ballet and Contextual Studies at Northern Ballet School, she fully understands the importance of equipping today's graduates with the necessary skills for a long and successful career in the dance industry.

Sarah has been an Examiner and Tutor for the RAD since 1995 and became a Trustee in 2011. Through her work she has travelled extensively; adjudicating, delivering CPD courses and teaching at International Summer Schools. Sarah is also the External Examiner for the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland, BA Modern Ballet Programme.